

117TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 9615

To prohibit certain discrimination against athletes on the basis of sex by intercollegiate athletic associations, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DECEMBER 20, 2022

Ms. ADAMS (for herself, Mrs. TRAHAN, and Ms. BONAMICI) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

A BILL

To prohibit certain discrimination against athletes on the basis of sex by intercollegiate athletic associations, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Fair Play for Women
5 Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) 50 years ago, Congress passed title IX of 9 the Education Amendments of 1972 (referred to in 10 this section as “title IX”), helping to transform par-

1 participation in and support for women’s sports by barring
2 discrimination on the basis of sex in all schools
3 that receive Federal funding, including in their ath-
4 letic programs.

5 (2) Since the passage of title IX, millions more
6 women and girls have had the opportunity to com-
7 pete in interscholastic athletics. At the high school
8 level, athletic participation opportunities have in-9 creased from nearly 300,000 in 1972 to more than 10 3,400,000 in 2019. At the collegiate level, opportuni-
11 ties have increased from nearly 30,000 in 1972 to 12 215,000 in 2020 on teams sponsored by institutions
13 who are members of the National Collegiate Athletic 14 Association (referred to in this section as the 15 “NCAA”).

16 (3) Despite progress, women and girls still face
17 unequal opportunities. At the high school level, girls
18 have over 1,000,000 fewer athletic opportunities
19 than boys, with schools providing girls with 43 per-20 cent of all athletic opportunities while girls represent 21 nearly half of all students. At the collegiate level,
22 colleges would need to provide women with an addi-
23 tional 148,000 sports opportunities to match the 24 same ratio of sports opportunities per student as is 25 offered to men.

1 (4) Girls of color are often most impacted by
2 inequitable opportunities. At high schools predomi-
3 nantly attended by White students, girls have 82
4 percent of the opportunities that boys have to play
5 sports, while at high schools predominantly attended 6 by students of color, girls have only 67 percent of 7 the opportunities that boys have to play sports.

8 (5) The magnitude of current gaps in intercolle-
9 giate participation opportunities is likely under-
10 counted, as investigations of intercollegiate athletics
11 data have found that the majority of NCAA member
12 institutions inflate the number of women partici-
13 pating in sports by double- and triple-counting
14 women athletes who participate in more than one 15 sport more often than the institutions double- and 16 triple-count their male counterparts, counting male
17 practice players on women's teams as women ath-
18 letes, and packing women's teams with extra players
19 who never end up competing.

20 (6) Women and girls in sports also face unequal
21 treatment. They are frequently provided worse facili-
22 ties, equipment, and uniforms than men and boys,
23 and they receive less financial support and publicity
24 from their schools, as women receive $240,000,000
25 less than men in athletic-based scholarships annu-

1 ally. For every dollar colleges spend on recruiting,
2 travel, and equipment for men’s sports, they spend 3 58 cents, 62 cents, and 73 cents, respectively, for 4 women’s sports.

5 (7) Amid ongoing inequitable treatment, ath-
6 letes and athletics-related staff too often are un-
7 aware of the rights and obligations that are de-
8 scribed in or come from title IX. In surveys of chil-
9 dren and their parents, the majority report not 10 knowing what title IX is. A study conducted by the 11 Government Accountability Office in 2017 found
12 that the majority of high school athletic administra-
13 tors were unaware of who their title IX coordinator
14 was or felt unsupported by their title IX coordinator.
15 In collegiate sports, the majority of coaches report
16 that they never received formal training about title
17 IX as part of the preparation for their jobs.

18 SEC. 3. PURPOSES.

19 The purposes of this Act are to—

20 (1) address inequitable and discriminatory
21 treatment of women and girls in sports in elemen-
22 tary and secondary schools, as well as institutions of 23 higher education; and

24 (2) improve the collection and transparency of 25 data pertaining to participation in and support for

1 women's and girls' sports at schools receiving Fed-
2 eral financial assistance.

3 SEC. 4. DISCRIMINATION BY INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC

5 letic association to remedy a violation of this section. The
